PRESS RELEASE

IMI Remains Bosch Preferred Supplier, 6 Years in a Row

June 26, 2015, Laguna, Philippines— Integrated Micro-Electronics Inc. (IMI), one of the leading worldwide providers of electronics manufacturing services (EMS) and power semiconductor assembly and test services, has again been awarded by Robert Bosch GmbH the status of preferred supplier in the EMS category.

For six consecutive years, IMI is being recognized for its superior competence and performance by Bosch, a leading global supplier of technology and devices in the areas of automotive, industrial, and consumer electronics.

Arthur R. Tan, IMI president and chief executive officer said, “For more than a decade now, our partnership with Bosch has been a growing collaborative relationship. And we shall continue to partner with them, offering solutions that leverage our global footprint and diverse technical and management resources.”

Robert Bosch GmbH, or Bosch, is the world’s largest supplier of automotive components and is a German multinational engineering and electronics company based in Gerlingen at Stuttgart, Germany.

IMI manufactures for Bosch automotive, industrial and consumer electronic products. It ranks 18th among the largest EMS providers in the world today as published by the Manufacturing Market Insider. The list is based on the 2014 EMS-related revenues of these companies.
